

PENROSE WANTS TROOPS SENT INTO MEXICO

ASKS CONGRESS TO PROVIDE CASH

To Pay for Protecting American Lives and Property in Mexico.

WILL ACT AS POLICE

Resolution Says of the Troops and Be in No Way Hostile to the Factions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Senator Penrose introduced today a resolution requiring President Wilson to take the necessary steps to place United States troops in Mexico to protect American lives and property, such a step to be decreed by the Senate as in no way an unfriendly act toward Mexico.

Senator Penrose introduced also an amendment to the deficiency bill for an appropriation of $25,000,000 to be expended as the president might direct for the protection of the lives of Americans in Mexico. He made no effort to obtain immediate action upon his resolution and at the suggestion of Senator La Follette it went over a day under the Senate rules.

The amendment for the emergency appropriation, Senator Penrose explained, was similar to a provision in an appropriation act just prior to the Spanish war and he asked that the amendment lie on the table in the Senate until the bill comes over from the House.

For Protection of Lives.
"The administration has asked for $100,000 to take Americans out of Mexico," said Senator Penrose after announcing he would not discuss his resolution. "I think they have a right to be in Mexico. I think they have a right to be there under our treaties and under international law. We have no right to attempt to break up their homes and occupations. Rather than appropriate this pittance of $100,000 to make this wholesale removal I would appropriate this $25,000,000 to keep them where they are and to protect them."

The Penrose resolution draws attention to the Monroe doctrine and to the possibilities that continued destruction of property in Mexico would "involve international complications and intervention by European nations."

Suggests Police.

The resolution especially declares that it is not the policy of the government of the United States to recognize or assist any faction or factions in the Republic of Mexico and proposes "that the president of the United States be required to take such steps as are necessary to place a sufficient number of United States troops as a constabulary in the Republic of Mexico wherever and at such points as in his opinion they may be needed properly to police and protect citizens of the United States and their property and it is hereby declared that such employment of United States troops for the protection of lives and property of American citizens is not made with any intent that such policing and protection shall be construed as an act of hostility or unfriendliness toward the Mexican nation."

"I do not want to stir this matter up unduly," said Senator Penrose. "There is hardly a day that I am not appealed to by people from my state urging action to furnish protection to Americans in Mexico. It is not a sentiment, it is a condition."

Senator Nelson declared it seemed unwise at this juncture to agitate the question. "Such agitation," said he, "is an embarrassment to the president, who is doing everything he can to bring about peace. This resolution should go to the committee on foreign relations and not be used here to exploit speeches of an embarrassing character to the administration. We agitate intervention and intervention means war. We should do everything we can to avoid war and give Mexico the same chance we asked for and were given in the Civil war."

Senator Penrose replied that political intervention was not contemplated and that American citizens demanded police protection in Mexico particularly along the border such as had been afforded in Nicaragua and other Central American countries for twenty-five years past.

He declared that he was not urging war or intervention.

Concerted Effort.
A concerted effort on the part of Republicans and Democrats to support President Wilson in his Mexican policy and to carry to the world the definite idea that the president has the full support of the American people at once became apparent.

Introduction of the resolution was followed by a general demand on the part of the Republicans seconded by Chairman Bacon, of the foreign relations committee, for a cessation of all debate and to support President Wilson.

Senators Lodge, Gallinger, Nelson, Smoot and Sutherland joined in a definite expression of their belief that the Senate should give the world no occasion to believe that President Wilson did not have the confidence and support of leaders of both parties.

Mrs. Charles Ridenour conducted the song service and the Rev. H. R. Hess conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. Cora Ogden, corresponding secretary, read the minutes of the last session and the business of the morning was taken up again.

The many superintendents of the different departments had their reports finished and all were handed to the secretary who approved them. This finished the work of the superintendents.

Mrs. S. Smith, of this city, entertained the assembly with an address on "Franchise" which was discussed freely among all present.

Mrs. Cora R. Ogden, of Salem, talked to the delegates on "Law Enforcement for Moral Reform." Her talk was followed by an informal exchange of ideas on this subject. Mrs. Archer, a foreign missionary, was introduced at this point and she ably discussed the subject.

Mrs. Lyda J. Waters, of Stealey Heights, conducted the noonday prayer after which luncheon was served in the basement of the church by the members of the Stealey Heights union.

At the time the Telegram went to press the convention was electing officers for the ensuing year.

Counsel Decide Not to Produce Him in Court on a Habeas Corpus Writ.

PROGRAM IS DELAYED

Immigration Officials Can Not Take Him from Prison Nor Can the Court.

SHERBROOK, Quebec, Aug. 21.—After an all night conference counsel for Harry K. Thaw announced this morning that they would produce the Matteawan fugitive at the superior court on the writ of habeas corpus obtained yesterday. They explained that the writ is returnable at any time and that although 10 a. m. today had been tentatively agreed on yesterday they had decided to delay proceedings pending further conferences.

According to present plans they will use the writ tomorrow morning. This marking of time by the defense was due mainly to the arrival last night of Mr. and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie, brother-in-law and sister of the prisoner, who are anxious that no court steps be taken until every bulwark of defense has been strengthened.

Program Delayed.
The move came as a surprise to the immigration officials and to District Attorney Conger and Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, N. Y. They had expected that Thaw would be arraigned before noon today, released on the present commitment and then held as an undesirable alien and quickly deported. As matters stood this forenoon indications were that this program had simply been put off a day.

With Thaw once in the hands of the immigration authorities opinion varied as to what course would be followed. One version had it that he would be returned to Coaticook, where he was arrested on Tuesday and from there deported, if it were proved that he was an undesirable alien, to the nearest border point in Vermont or New Hampshire.

Owing to errors in the papers committing Thaw to jail he is safe there for an indefinite period, as no date for the hearing of his case was mentioned in them. While in jail Thaw is also safe from the immigration department, which has no power over him.

Officials Baffled.
By allowing Thaw to remain in custody the defense has offset the immigration authorities who had been waiting with confident expectation for Thaw's release from jail when they would have pounced upon him and it firmly believed ordered his deportation at once.

Thaw is, of course, fighting against being deported to the New York state line as such a move would entail his immediate incarceration in Matteawan.

Little importance is attached by the immigration department to the fact that Thaw has a through ticket to Detroit, Mich., which fact, it has been asserted by the defense, would enable him to proceed on his way out of Canada.

W. L. Shurtliff, K. C., one of Thaw's lawyers, left for Ottawa last night to confer with the Department of the Interior. His purpose is believed to be to endeavor to secure a promise from the department that if deported Thaw might select his own destination. If this move should result successfully, it was declared here this morning by one of Thaw's counsel, that he might go to South America.

The Rev. Paul L. Flanagan, pastor of Ash Chapel Methodist Episcopal church, and his family returned this morning from near Lewisburg in Greenbrier county, where they spent a vacation of six weeks. He was his pulpit Sunday morning, preaching as usual.
